

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Srinjay Chakravarti is a writer and translator based in Salt Lake City, Calcutta, India. He was educated at St. Xavier's College, Calcutta, and at universities based in Calcutta and New Delhi. He has a B.Sc. (Economics honors) and an M.A. in English. His creative writing has appeared in more than 150 publications in over 40 countries. These include journals and reviews of 30-odd colleges and universities. His first poetry collection Occam's Razor (Writers Workshop, Calcutta, 1994) received the Salt Literary Award from John Kinsella. He won one of the top prizes ($7,500) in the Dorothy Sargent Rosenberg Memorial Poetry Competition 2007–08. Website: www.srinjaychakravarti.com.

Email: srinjay.chakravarti@gmail.com

Mousana Nightingale Chowdhury is a third-year doctoral candidate at Cotton University, India and Assistant Professor of English at Sipajhar College, Assam. She is pursuing her PhD in dementia narratives at the intersection of Health Humanities and Disability Studies. Her works have appeared in The Polyphony: Conversations Across the Medical Humanities (Durham University) and Age, Culture and Humanities: An Interdisciplinary Journal. Her latest publication is a co-authored chapter in Disability and Peripherality (2025) published by Springer Nature.

Email: mousana2017@gmail.com

Debashrita Dey is an Assistant Professor of English in the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology (Indian School of Mines) Dhanbad. Her research interests comprise Ageing Studies, Feminist Studies, Health Humanities and Care Narratives. She has published in Journal of Postcolonial Writing, Journal of Aging Studies, National Identities, South Asian Popular Culture amongst others.

Email: debashrita@iitism.ac.in.

Shreyaa Gajraj is a research scholar in the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at the Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee, Roorkee, India. Her research focuses on the Sri Lankan civil war, exploring themes of trauma and memory.

Email: shreyaagajraj23@gmail.com

Payal Jain teaches in the Department of English, Cotton University. Her PhD thesis was on the critique of body and sexuality in contemporary Indian English Women's Fiction. Her areas of interest and research are women's writing, female body and sexuality, Indian English literature, fiction studies, narrative theory, pedagogy, ageing, and medical humanities.

Email: payal.jain@cottonuniversity.ac.in

Janagi Komravaloo is a PhD candidate at the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Selangor, Malaysia. Her research focuses on Malaysian Tamil creative productions such as films and short stories, primarily focusing on disenfranchised and marginalised Malaysian Tamil working class children. Janagi's work engages mediated transmissions as evident in cross genre investigations pre- and post-Malayan Independence, seeking to discover the portrayal of Malaysian Tamil working class children.

Email: kjanagi79@gmail.com

Nagendra Kumar is a Professor in the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at Indian Institute of Technology, Roorkee, Uttarakhand, India. In addition to authoring the critically acclaimed book The Fiction of Bharati Mukherjee: A Cultural Perspective (Atlantic, 2001), his work has appeared in esteemed journals such as South Asian Review, Critique: Studies in Contemporary Fiction, Asiatic, Rupkatha: Journal on Interdisciplinary Studies in Humanities, Contemporary Voice of Dalit, Caesura: Journal of Philological and Humanistic Studies, IUP Journal of English Studies, and Literary Voice, among others.

Email: nagendra.kumar@hs.iitr.ac.in

Rheanna Mathews (ORCID <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1840-7266>) is a UGC Senior Research Fellow at Christ University, Bangalore, India. Her research examines gender, sexuality, power, and temporality in queer fantasy fiction, focusing on resistance, memory, and alternative futurities. She has published a book chapter, "Populism and Fantasy Fiction," in the Springer Nature Encyclopedia of New Populism and Responses in the 21st Century, and continues to address how contemporary fiction formally engages queer identities.

Email: rheanna.mathews@res.christuniversity.in

Binod Mishra (ORCID <http://orcid.org/0000-0003-2364-6405>) is a Professor of English at the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology, Roorkee, India. He has published more than 100 papers, 25 books, and 21 book reviews in esteemed journals.

Email: binod.mishra@hs.iitr.ac.in

Sharmila Narayana (ORCID <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0508-7080>) is Professor at Christ University, Bangalore (India). Her areas of interest are Cultural Studies, Afro-American literature, and Gender Studies. She has numerous publications in various reputed international journals.

Email: sharmila.narayana@christuniversity.in

Shilpa Nataraj (ORCID <https://orcid.org/0009-0006-3673-864X>) is a research scholar in the Department of English and Cultural Studies at Christ (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru. Her research interests include Literary Urban Studies, Postcolonial Studies, Political Ecology, and Digital Humanities. She has previously worked as an Assistant Professor of English Literature, teaching courses in Literary Theory and Cultural Studies to both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. Her interests also extend to poetry. As a researcher and poet, she has published her works in reputed journals.

Email: shilpa.nataraj@res.christuniversity.in

Shanthini Pillai (PhD) is Associate Professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, National University of Malaysia (UKM). Her research interests are anchored primarily in ethnic diversity, diaspora and transnationalism in literary and cultural texts with particular reference to the global South Asian diaspora. An emergent interest is in the cultural consciousness of Catholic diasporic Indians and Chinese in Malaysia. She has headed a number of research projects on transnationalism and cultural identity and has also participated in transnational research projects. She has held Research Fellowships at the University of Queensland, Australia, the Asia Research Institute, Singapore and Université Catholique de l'Ouest, France.

Email: spillai@ukm.edu.my

Bhagyashree Saikia (ORCID: <http://orcid.org/0009-0000-6258-891X>) is a research scholar in English literature at the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee. Her research interests encompass North-East India Indigenous literature, New Materialism and Critical Heritage Studies.

Email: bhagyashree\_s@hs.iitr.ac.in

Priyanka Tripathi is an Associate Professor of English and former Head of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology Patna (India). She has been awarded the prestigious Charles Wallace India Trust Visiting Fellowship (2024-25) at the School of History, University of Leeds. She was also awarded the IPD Visiting Research Fellowship (2022-23) at IASH, University of Edinburgh. She has published extensively and works in the areas of Gender Studies, South Asian Fiction, GeoHumanities, and Graphic Novels.

Email: priyankatripathi@iitp.ac.in.

Ratu Yousei is a writer from Kelana Jaya who is interested in writing about how spirituality permeates in every facet of human life. He is currently pursuing an MA in Linguistics at Universiti Malaya with a research interest in language policy and nationalism.

Email: ratuyousei@gmail.com